

AMONG THE EXCHANGES
OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Michael Lynch Dead.
Michael Lynch, argonaut, who died in this city Saturday, after a long and lingering illness, was buried this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Lynch was born in Oshkosh, Wis. in 1829. He was therefore 65 years old. He was one of those who loved the stampede to California in 1849, coming to Oregon on the tide of gold seekers which swept north to Eastern Oregon in 1861-62.

In 1862 Mr. Lynch went to Florence, Idaho, where he placed mined with varying success until 1873, in which year he returned to Sumpter and worked in the diggings on the upper waters of Bull Run creek. In 1881, he, together with Waukeo Tabor, old man Tabor, and O. O. Benson, located the Ilex mine. The location was allowed to lapse and Lynch returned to placer mining in various parts of the camp.

He and Andy Dewar of Sumpter, located the Amazon mine, on the mountain side, selling out to J. T. Engstrom of Golconda fame. Since then Mr. Lynch has intermittently engaged in placer and quartz mining, prospecting, timber raising and speculation in mine lands. He died possessed of considerable timber lands and some mining stock.—Sumpter Daily Miner.

Walla Walla Boys Killed.

Louise Walla and August Weitz, Walla Walla boys, aged respectively 17 and 19 years, were the two boys who were killed in the wreck of the train on the W. & C. R. early this morning. They had boarded the train a few hours before in gay mood, intending to beat their way to home and had probably entered the car along with the sheep, thinking it would be easier to keep warm this way than to ride on the brake rods. It is thought both boys were stunned by the accident, and that Cantrill was from suffocation among the sheep while this unable to help him. Weitz was more badly injured, his head being partly torn from the back of his head, and he being otherwise bruised; and it is possible that he would have died from the results of these injuries even if he had not been covered up by the sheep.—Walla Walla Union.

The Norman Williams Case.

In making inquiry as to the progress of the Norman Williams case, our reporter has ascertained that Attorney General Crawford has stipulated with Mr. McGinn, Eastern Oregon, that the latter could have until December 10 to file his brief in the supreme court. District Attorney Menefee has been asked by Mr. McGinn to grant this extension, but has refused upon the ground that there had already been ample time for the brief to be prepared and that a longer delay was not justifiable.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Asotin Stands Pat.

The soliciting committee appointed by the Commercial Club to solicit subscriptions for the Columbia River portage road, reported today that they have secured between $1350 and $1400 from the people of Clarkston and Vineland, and that it is hoped that between $1650 and $1700 will be secured by the end of this week. Of the $40,000 necessary to raise by subscription for the portage road, $2500 was assigned to Asotin county, $2500 now seems little doubt but that Asotin county will be the first county in Eastern Washington or Northern Idaho to raise its quota.—Lewiston Tribune.

Shot and Bled to Death.

Percy Glenn, 13 years of age, accidentally shot and killed himself while hunting near his home on McDonald creek, 13 miles southeast of Lewiston on Monday last. His younger brother, who was with him at the time of the accident, stated that Percy slipped on a stone while pursuing some game, and in some manner the gun was discharged. The entire charge of shot penetrated the left leg below the knee, producing a horrible wound and the boy bled to death before medical assistance could reach him.

To Complete Baker City Hall.

At the meeting of the city council last night, Mayor Carter and all the aldermen with the exception of Haskell and Chandler, were present. Four bids were opened for the $12,000 bond issue for the completion of the new city hall. Albert Kleybolt & Co. of Cincinnati, were the successful bidders in the sum of $12,792.—Baker City Democrat.

D. W. Ralston Dead.

The body of D. W. Ralston, a prominent stock dealer and farmer of Gilliam county, who died Sunday night at Mayville of pneumonia, passed through The Dalles today, and will be buried in Portland tomorrow. Mr. Ralston, who was very well known in Eastern Oregon, was 60 years of age.—The Dalles Chronicle.
